INTERNATIONAL MARRIAGE.
He never played a hero's part.
His store of wit was small:
But when he wooed the gentle maid
He won her from them all.
Her father was a millionaire,
And she was fair to see,
But, truth to tell, alas! alack!
They had no pedigree.
He was a scrawny little chap,
His puny legs bowed out,
But she admired him because
His grandpa died of gout.
